SONGS OF PRAISE FOR CHOIRS AND FRIENDS

The diocese is organising an afternoon of singing and reflection for church choirs and music groups and anybody wishing to join them in the cathedral. It will be a relaxed afternoon that will begin with learning some liturgical music in harmony, but most of the following hour will be a service of singing and reflection with faith testimonies and prayer. It is hoped the afternoon will offer those who lead liturgical music encouragement and, unlike a workshop, will not be at all strenuous. Sunday, 1st February, at 2.30pm in the North Cathedral.

Everyone wishing to attend is invited to register online in order to facilitate printing and light refreshments:

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING IN OUR FAMILY OF PARISH

Our wonderful choirs have been asked to lead us in singing the following:

- A Thiarna déan trócaire – we repeat after they have sung it
- Plainchant Alleluia – we repeat after we have listened to them singing it through once; they sing the verse of the celebration; we all join together in singing the Alleluia the third time. We will have a Lenten alternative from Ash Wednesday, sung in the same listen-repeat, wait, all repeat fashion.
- Seán Ó Riada's Ár nAthair

We hope our primary schools will take up these practices also, especially in ensuring our young people come to learn the Our Father in Irish.
